

MSO extends a heartfelt appreciation to her members and her supporters who are carrying out our Lord's Great Commission in their global military ministerial works. Below are the MSO's March reports:

1. Preparing online curriculums for MSO World Military Missionary Ministry

- In order to overcome the COVID-19 situation and adapt to the changing educational environment, the curriculum and instructor arrangements have been renewed so that all curriculums planned by MSO can be taught on-line.
- The main lecturer and the assistant lecturer were newly organized in each education subject. They will be able to participate and support the education and training programs of MSO and other institutions throughout the year. The instructors in charge are also preparing for face-to-face lectures and on-line ones.
- When the preparation for education is completed by the end of March as scheduled, these lecturers will be committed to the MEO Program which invites representative Christian soldiers from countries where MCFs are not yet established or their activities are weak, and to the discipleship training for MCF leaders of Indochina and Central Asian countries.
- In addition, they will be actively utilized in various educational programs planned by MSO, such as the discipleship training programs for foreign military officers and cadets studying at Korea National Defense University, Service Staff Colleges, and Service Academies.

2. The modified articles of incorporation of MSO approved

- Article 5 on the six functions of MSO's ministry activities was revised with redefining them as ① Prayer and Worship ② Evangelism and Visits ③ Meetings & Conferences ④ Communicating and Fellowship ⑤ Teaching and Encouraging ⑥ Cooperating and Supporting.
- Paragraph 5 of Article 5, Education and Encouragement, newly specifies that MSO will invite the MCF leaders of the relevant country to help or revitalize the establishment of MCFs in that country, or will invite foreign military students and officials in Korea to educate them, if necessary, for the same purpose.

3. Election of the new MSO auditor

- Elder Song, Ko-sung who served as the Director of the MSO Audit Office for 8 years retired, and Pastor Shin, Dong-taek was approved as the new auditor at the MSO General Meeting on January 30. He began his work as of January 30, 2021.
- The newly elected auditor Pastor Shin expressed his resolution that he would perform his job with prayers and do his best to develop the ministry of MSO under God's guidance.

4. AMCF Presidential Bench Meetings

- On February 20 and 27, online conferences were held to discuss current issues of each national MCFs and AMCF Regions under the chairmanship of the AMCF President, General Weerasooriya.
- The February 20 meeting was attended by the representatives of 3 PSOs and the regional Vice Presidents (VPs) from the clusters of Africa, Asia, Europe and the Pacific. The February 27 meeting was attended by the VPs of North, Central and South America, the regional VPs who were unable to attend the first meeting, and the representatives of the 3 PSOs.
- During the meeting, the President expressed his gratitude for continuing missionary ministries and sharing information through the on-line meetings even in the COVID-19 situation. National MCFs were also requested that prayers and meetings be expanded through various means of communication.

- The President also invited active participation of military Christian leaders around the world including VPs to the committees for the preparation of the 2024 World Conference in Brazil.
- In addition, as the COVID-19 vaccines began to be distributed around the world, all the participants prayed to God in unity so that it would be a year for normal ministry activities such as face-to-face meetings for Christian soldiers from around the world.
