

MSO extends a heartfelt appreciation to her members and her supporters who are carrying out our Lord's Great Commission in their global military ministerial works. Below are the MSO's March reports:

1 MSO Encouraged Christian Military Attachés to Be.

On February 22, MSO Chairman Gen. Park Nam-pil invited Christian Military Attachés to be dispatched overseas this year to the Air Force Hotel and encouraged them with dinner. At this event, a total of 15 personnel including Admiral (ret.) Kim, Pan-kyu who is designated as the Ambassador to Nigeria, 4 Christian Military Attachés, KMCF Secretary General (Col. Yun Pyeong-hwan), MSO Secretary General, and Director of World Mission Bureau attended.

The event was held in the order of the Chairman's Welcome Address followed by introduction of AMCF/MSO, a prayer of thanks, and fellowship. This event was held for the first time in 2023 by inviting 6 Christian Military Attachés, and was held for the second time this year to introduce world military missionary work to military attachés to be dispatched around the world and to lay the foundation to develop them as future MSO leaders.

2 MSO World Mission Bureau Dedication Service Held

On February 29 (Thursday) World Mission Bureau Dedication Service was held in the Gideon Chapel of the Central Military Chapel(CMC), both face-to-face and online via Zoom.

In the first part of the service, the Korea World Mission Association (KWMA) Pastor Chung, Yong-gu expressed his hope in his sermon that all the MSO members would be used by the Lord in world military missionary ministry as “workers fully prepared in times of crisis.”

In the second part of the service presided by Col(r.) Chang, Yong-kwan, director of World Mission Bureau, 2024 general ministry plan report (by the director), military ministry plan report in the Middle East (by Col(r.) Kye, Yong-ho, Middle East Team Leader), and a ministry plan report in the Africa West and South (by Col(r.) Lee Hyun-chul Africa West and South Team Leader) were conducted. Part 3 was a time for fellowship. Through this dedication service, the members of the World Mission Bureau recognized that they are frontline workers carrying out major missionary works of MSO and pledged to do their best in the ministry assigned to them.

3 KVMCF/KMCF Joint Breakfast Prayer Meeting and Military Missionary Organizations Cooperation Meeting Held

On March 6, the KVMCF/KMCF joint breakfast service was held at the Central Military Chapel. The worship service, the first part of the meeting, was proceeded by a prayer by KVMCF President Elder Park, Nam-pil, who is also the Chairman of MSO, and a sermon under the title of "Like Children of Light" by Yoido Full Gospel Church Pastor Yoon, Kwang-hyun. The second part was the breakfast and fellowship. In Part 3, the implemented and planned ministries of military mission-related organizations were reported, followed by serious discussion on supporting the growth of Korean MCF(KMCF) and establishing its branches at every unit of battalion level.

4 MSO Officers Attended Yoido Full Gospel Church Dedication Service for Military Ministry.

On February 18, a military mission dedication service was held hosted by Yoido Full Gospel Church (Senior Pastor Rev. Lee, Young-hoon). Yoido Full Gospel Church, which puts God's plan into practice with a vision for world missions, is one of the biggest churches of the world that ardently supports the ministry for the evangelization of the Korean Armed Forces and world military missions. The Church also cooperates closely with military mission-related organizations home and abroad.

At the dedication service, delegates of mission-related organizations such as KVMCF, KMCF, MEAK, and MSO attended and prayed together "for God, for the Republic of Korea, and for its military." On behalf of MSO, Chairman Park, Nam-pil, Former AMCF President Lee, Pil-sup, and ECA VP Chung, Bong-dae attended to solidify cooperation with Korean civilian churches for global military missionary work.

5 AMCF Ministries

(1) AMCF WCON 2024 P&P(Online)

On February 15, a preparatory meeting for the 2024 World Conference was held, hosted by AMCF President General Essel Soriano, with the participation of AMCF regional vice presidents, 3PSOs, and the Brazilian Military Christian Fellowship (UMCEB). The P&P decided that the participant registration website would be operated from February, and that 3PSOs would support the registration of overseas participants.

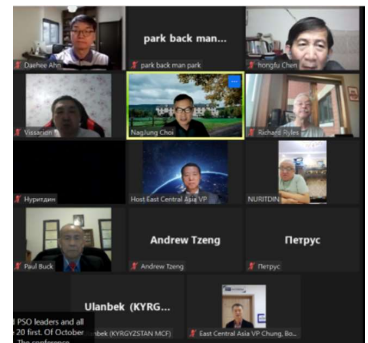

(2) AMCF Watch & Pray Meeting(Online)

On February 28, a February prayer meeting was held to prepare for AMCF WCON 2024, hosted by AMCF President. AMCF is preparing for the 2024 World Conference by hosting the prayer meeting once a month.

(3) AMCF East & Central Asia(ECA) Vision Prayer Meeting(Online)

On March 2, an online prayer meeting was held led by ECA VP Rev. Chung, Bong-dae. In attendance were the national MCF presidents and leaders of the six ECA countries along with Col Andrew Tzeng, former East Asia VP, Col Rick Ryles from ACCTS, Pastor Paul Buck, former CFC Chief Chaplain, MSO ECA Team Leader, MSO Mission Director, and MSO Operation Director.

(4) Navy Captain Witchert Inaugurated as ACCTS Executive Director

On March 1, ACCTS Executive Director Col. Phil Exner successfully concluded the mission of AMCF and ACCTS over the past 12 years. We believe that God will greatly reward him for his dedication to and service in world military missionary ministry. We pray that our Lord bless Col and Mrs. Exner and their family abundantly.

Prayer Requests

We'd cordially ask you to pray.

• For the AMCF

- ① That MCFs are quickly established in 43 countries where MCFs have not yet been established, specially for Iraqi and Equatorial Guinean Christian soldiers;
- ② That the Watch & Pray Meeting (March 20) hosted by the AMCF President will help preparations for AMCF WC 2024 proceeded smoothly and encourage many future MCF leaders (Joshuas) to attend the World Conference.
- ③ May the Lord guide USN Capt. Terry Wichert, the new Executive Director of ACCTS, and pour wisdom, health, and passion into him so that he will graciously carry out the military missionary ministry entrusted to him by the Lord.
- ④ That the wars between Ukraine and Russia will end as soon as possible and peace will be established in this land, and that the Lord will protect and refresh the military chaplains serving on the front lines of Ukraine so that they will carry out their missions well;
- ⑤ May that the war between Israel and Hamas reach a ceasefire as soon as possible and prevent the war from spreading further in the Middle East.

• For the MSO

- ① For World Mission Bureau members to communicate directly with AMCF regional VPs, 3 PSOs, and MCF leaders of each country to revitalize global military missionary ministry;
- ② For Vietnam MCF members and MSO support instructors participating in Indo-China Cornelius Discipleship Training (Mar 12~15);
- ③ For Kyrgyz Christian soldiers and their families participating in discipleship training in the CIS countries (in April) and the missionaries conducting this training;
- ④ May the MSO education training ministry of Year 2024 be effectively planned and executed, and may the Education and Training Bureau Dedication Service & Workshop scheduled for March 28 proceed gracefully;
- ⑤ That civilian and military churches, and mission-related organizations may participate actively in sponsorship and fundraising activities for MSO ministries.
