

MSO extends a heartfelt appreciation to its members and supporters who are carrying out our Lord's Great Commission in their global military ministerial works. Below are the MSO's March reports:

1 Cambodia MCF Cornelius Discipleship Training

From February 18 to 20, 2025, the Cambodia MCF Discipleship Training was held in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. A total of 34 MCF members participated, with Elder Lee Kap-jin and Missionary Lee Jae-yool serving as instructors, leading sessions on the Word and discipleship training.

Following the training, a nighttime gathering was organized by the Cambodia MCF president. This gathering provided a valuable opportunity for participants to connect, share experiences, and encourage one another in their faith, fostering unity among them.

Through this discipleship training, participants received in-depth faith education and reaffirmed the importance and necessity of discipleship training in their respective ministries. The training in Cambodia was not just an isolated event but served as a crucial foundation for the expansion of God's kingdom through collaboration with local churches and international fellowship.

2 MSO World Mission Bureau Dedication Service

On February 27, MSO held the World Mission Bureau Dedication Service at the Central Military Chapel, with 39 participants (23 in person and 16 online).

The first part of the service featured a prayer by Mission Director Choi Nag-jung and a sermon by Missionary Thomas Kang titled "God's Will in the Midst of War."

During the second part, reports on weekly ministry activities were presented, followed by an announcement of the 2025 mission plans by Chang Yong-kwan, Director of the World Missions Department. Additionally, regional reports were shared by Elder Kye Yong-ho, the Middle East Team Leader, and Elder Lee Hyun-chul, the Southwest Africa Team Leader.

After a time of fellowship in the third part, the fourth part concluded with a World Missions Department workshop.

3 Visit to the MSO Office

a. Visit by Pastor Na Sung-han from the Ministry of National Defense Chaplaincy Policy Division

On Thursday, February 13, Pastor Na Sung-han from the Ministry of National Defense Chaplaincy Policy Division visited MSO and met with the MSO chairman and related officials. During the meeting, MSO introduced AMCF/MSO and shared its 2025 ministry plans. Additionally, MSO requested the Ministry of National Defense's cooperation regarding FMF-K Interaction and the MEO program. Pastor Na expressed his interest in MSO's activities and promised active support.

b. Visit by Military Missions Representatives from Sooyoungro Church, Busan

On February 10, two representatives from Sooyoungro Church's military missions department, including Evangelist Kwon Mal-seon, visited MSO. They were introduced to MSO's ministry and acknowledged the need for international mission cooperation. Both parties agreed to continue discussions with the Sooyoungro Church World Missions Department for future collaboration.

4 AMCF Activities

a. East Asia MCF Presidents' Online Prayer Meeting

On February 1, an East Asia MCF Presidents' Prayer Meeting was held online, led by Sam Nagano, President of Japan MCF. Representatives from Taiwan, Mongolia, and Japan MCF, along with an ACCTS Asia coordinator, attended the meeting. They shared prayer topics for military ministry and peace in their respective countries and engaged in intercessory prayer. The national representatives prayed for:

- Taiwan: Securing next-generation leaders and establishing peace

- Mongolia: Strengthening MCF branches and enhancing discipleship training
- Japan: Preparing for the 2025 East China Sea Interaction

Through this prayer meeting, East Asia MCF reaffirmed its commitment to military ministry cooperation and the development of future leaders.

b. ACCTS Announces New Deputy Director

On February 22, ACCTS announced the appointment of Lieutenant Colonel (Ret.) Colin Wootton as the new Deputy Director. Colin Wootton, currently serving as the Field Operations Director for OCF (Officers' Christian Fellowship), will officially assume his role on April 1. ACCTS anticipates that his leadership and passion for military ministry will make a significant impact, and he is scheduled to attend the ACCTS Staff Meeting in April.

MSO Chairman Park Nam-pil expressed deep respect and gratitude to outgoing Deputy Director Bernhard Kaltenbach for his many years of dedicated service to military ministry.

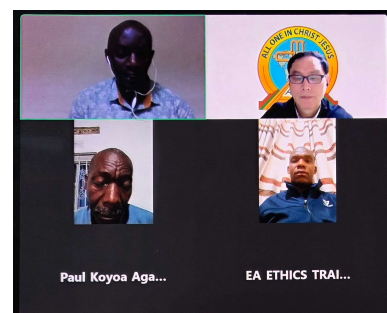

c. East Africa MCF Leaders' Online Prayer Meeting

On February 26, East Africa MCF leaders held an online prayer meeting. The meeting was attended by six participants, including Yoon Moon-soo, East Africa Team Leader of MSO and the East Africa Regional Vice President.

Key prayer topics included:

- Political stability in Somalia, Sudan, and the Democratic Republic of the Congo
- The 2025 East Africa Regional Conference (scheduled for September)
- The construction of the Ethiopian Military Ministry Welfare Center
- Political stability in South Korea

This gathering provided an opportunity for leaders to unite in prayer for the challenges and mission work in the East Africa region.

5 KMCF Activities

a. KVMCF/KMCF Joint Breakfast Service

On February 5, a KVMCF/KMCF Joint Breakfast Service was held at the Central Military Chapel, attended by over 150 MCF members and believers from the Ministry of National Defense, Joint Chiefs of Staff, and military units in the metropolitan area.

Pastor Kim Hak-soo (Senior Pastor of Jangwi Central Church) delivered a sermon emphasizing the importance of military evangelism. The service was further enriched by a special song performed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff 2nd Branch MCF.

Following the service, a coordination meeting was held with related organizations to discuss strategies for advancing military missions. The attendees reaffirmed their commitment to working together for the expansion of God's kingdom.

b. 2025 KMCF Dedication Service & General Assembly

On Sunday, February 9, the Korea Military Christian Fellowship (KMCF) held its 2025 Dedication Service and General Assembly at the Central Military Chapel, both in-person and online.

The first part of the service featured leadership by Secretary General Kim Jong-chul, a prayer by Deacon Oh Soon-geun, a sermon by Pastor Chung Bi-ho, and a special song by the KMCF Choir.

During the second part, the General Assembly reviewed the past year's activities, discussed future plans, and exchanged ideas with attendees, reinforcing the vision for military ministry in the coming year.

7 Prayer Requests

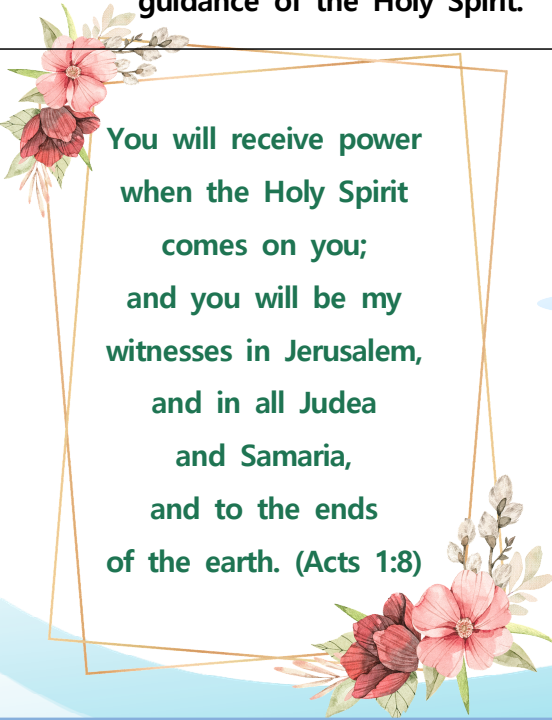

We'd cordially ask you to pray.

- For the AMCF

- ① To establish Military Christian Fellowships (MCFs) in the 42 countries where they are not yet established, out of the 196 countries worldwide, as soon as possible.
- ② To spread the Gospel to military personnel in all countries through meetings and communication between the AMCF President and regional Vice Presidents.
- ③ To activate AMCF's ministry through collaborative efforts of supporting organizations such as ACCTS (USA), MMI (UK), and MSO (Korea).
- ④ To encourage the activation of Bible studies, prayer meetings, and fellowship gatherings for Christian military personnel through MCFs and leaders worldwide.
- ⑤ To pray for the swift conclusion of the wars between Ukraine and Russia, and Israel and the Middle East, and for peace to prevail.

- For the MSO

- ① Indochina Cornelius Discipleship Training (Vietnam MCF: March 11~14 in Da Nang) – To pray that new leaders will be discovered and that a strong foundation for MCF growth will be established. Also, pray for the safety of all instructors throughout their journey and that they may be granted wisdom and understanding.
- ② To pray for the smooth preparation and execution of FMF-K Interaction (May 3~5) and MEO-P (June 16~23).
- ③ To pray that all MSO members remain in good health and faithfully fulfill their mission of spreading the gospel among Christian military personnel worldwide under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

You will receive power
when the Holy Spirit
comes on you;
and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea
and Samaria,
and to the ends
of the earth. (Acts 1:8)
