

MSO extends its heartfelt gratitude to our members and supporters who faithfully serve in the fulfillment of the Lord's Great Commission through global military ministry. Below are MSO's reports.

MSO Holds 2025 Annual General Meeting and Year-End Worship Service, Reflecting on a Year of Ministry with Gratitude and Renewed Commitment

MSO held its 2025 Annual General Meeting and Year-End Worship Service on Saturday, December 20, 2025, at the Central Military Chapel, bringing the year's ministry to a meaningful close in God's grace. The gathering was a time to reflect on the global military mission work carried out over the past year and to give thanks for God's guidance and protection.

The event consisted of a worship service, followed by the annual general meeting and a time of fellowship. The worship service was held in a reverent atmosphere, offering encouragement and blessing to all members and ministry workers who faithfully served throughout the year. Participants testified to God's faithfulness experienced during 2025 and united in prayer, seeking His continued guidance for the year 2026.

During the General Meeting, reports on the 2025 ministry activities and financial statements were presented. Members shared testimonies of spiritual fruit and challenges from the mission field, once again reflecting on the significance and calling of their ministry.

Following the formal program, participants shared lunch and enjoyed a time of warm fellowship. They encouraged one another for their dedication and exchanged visions and expectations for the ministry in the coming year, preparing together with one heart and mind.

Through this Annual General Meeting and Year-End Worship Service, MSO reaffirmed its commitment to faithfully fulfilling its calling in global military missions and to continuing forward for the expansion of the Gospel.

2 Ilsan Chungshin Church Hosts an Invitational Luncheon to Strengthen Military Mission Ministry

On the afternoon of December 16, Ilsan Chungshin Church hosted an invitation meeting at a restaurant in Ilsan, welcoming 12 military mission representatives. The gathering was attended by the former and current senior pastors of Ilsan Chungshin Church, mission ministry staff, the Chair of MSO, the Director of Domestic Operations, and civilian ministry workers serving with frontline battalions.

During the meeting, participants were introduced to the ministry of MSO and shared firsthand accounts from frontline mission fields. They engaged in meaningful discussions on the evolving military environment and explored the role of local churches in military missions, seeking practical ways to collaborate for the evangelization of the military.

Ilsan Chungshin Church expressed strong support for the importance of military missions and pledged their continued prayers and support moving forward. One participant remarked, "This was a meaningful gathering that set a new milestone for military evangelism through cooperation between the church and frontline ministry workers."

3 MSO Opens the New Year with the 2026 New Year Worship Service

MSO held its 2026 New Year Worship Service on Friday, January 2, 2026, at the Yanghwajin Centennial Mission Memorial Hall, marking the beginning of its ministry for the new year. The Yanghwajin Foreign Missionaries' Cemetery is the resting place of 145 foreign missionaries and their families who devoted their lives to the Korean people during the late Joseon period and the Japanese colonial era. Since 2005, MSO has gathered at this historic site each year to begin its global military mission ministry through a New Year worship service and a memorial visit.

A total of 47 MSO executives and ministry partners attended the service, entrusting the year's work to God and renewing their commitment to faithful service. The worship service was led by Secretary General Jeong-il Cho, followed by a representative prayer offered by Senior Advisor Pil-sup Lee. The sermon was delivered by Senior Pastor Won-Seok Song of Yeomchang Central Church, based on Joshua 14:6-15, titled "Arise, Caleb." In his message, Pastor Song encouraged MSO to firmly hold on to its gospel calling and to move forward boldly in faith, trusting in the great work God will accomplish through global military missions.

The service continued with a New Year's greeting from Chair Nam-pil Park, followed by fellowship. After the service, participants shared lunch and exchanged their ministry vision and plans for the year ahead. Through this New Year Worship Service, MSO reaffirmed its commitment to serve faithfully in global military missions throughout 2026.

4 AMCF Activities

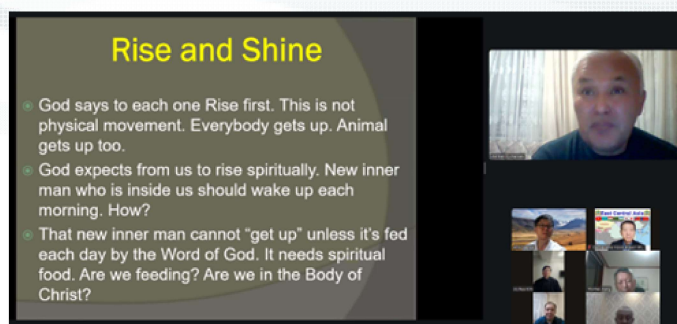

a. East-Central Asia MCF Joint Prayer Meeting Held "Accelerating Preparations for the 2026 Stan-Dart Conference"

The East-Central Asia MCF Joint Prayer Meeting, aimed at strengthening unity in military missions across East and Central Asia, was held online on December 9.

Participants included the Vice President of ECA, MCF representatives from five Central Asian countries (the Stan' nations), including Kazakhstan and Uzbekistan, as well as MSO representatives from Korea. The meeting opened with a sermon delivered by the President of the Kyrgyzstan MCF and was conducted in multiple languages, including Russian, English, and Korean, creating a meaningful time of unity that transcended language barriers.

Participants shared updates on the current status of military missions in their respective countries, and through a regional update presented by the East-Central Asia Vice President, they discussed future directions for cooperation. In particular, the President of the Uzbekistan MCF reported on the preparations for the 2026 Central Asia Conference (Stan-Dart) and led practical discussions aimed at ensuring the successful hosting of the event.

This joint prayer meeting served as a significant occasion to reaffirm solidarity among Central Asian countries in preparation for the 2026 Stan-Dart Conference.

b. AMCF Hosts Year-End Greeting and Prayer Meeting

On Wednesday, December 17, the Association of Military Christian Fellowships (AMCF) hosted the Year-End Greeting and Prayer Meeting in an online format.

The meeting was moderated by Pam Davis of MMI and brought together a total of 105 participants, including the AMCF President, 13 Vice Presidents, representatives from national MCFs, and 3PSO partners. Participants shared in fellowship and prayer, strengthening unity and vision for global military missions beyond national borders. From MSO, participants included Elder Kap-jin Lee, Secretary General Jeong-il Cho, Mission Director Nag-jung Choi, Southwest Africa Team Leader Hyun-chul Lee, and South Asia Team Leader Hyung-gon Kim, further reinforcing cooperation within the international military mission network.

This prayer meeting served as a meaningful occasion for global military mission organizations to reflect on the year's ministry and to reaffirm their commitment to continued unity and collaboration for the evangelization of the military worldwide.

5 MSO Holds Pray & Plan Meeting to Prepare for the 2026 AMCF Leaders Interaction

On Tuesday, January 6, MSO held an online Pray & Plan meeting to ensure the successful preparation of the 2026 AMCF Leaders Interaction. The meeting was attended by eight key staff members, including the Chairman, Senior Advisor Kap-jin Lee, and various directors, team leaders, and department heads, who reviewed detailed implementation plans.

During the meeting, participants discussed a range of administrative matters, including the request for the attendance of an MMI Middle East representative due to the absence of the regional vice president, the need for full-day use of the chapel for the opening worship service on June 16, and beginning the ticketing process by submitting registration forms and passport copies within January.

Particular attention was given to strategies for the efficient operation of the plenary sessions and breakout sessions scheduled to take place from Thursday, June 18, to Friday, June 19, during the event period.

Through systematic preparation, MSO is committed to ensuring that the 2026 Leaders Interaction becomes a new turning point for the global evangelization of the military.

6 Activities of the Korea Military Christian Fellowship (KMCF)

a. KMCF Celebrates 69th Anniversary Thanksgiving Service "Sixty-Nine Years of Grace for Military Evangelization, Looking Ahead with Hope"

The Korea Military Christian Fellowship (KMCF) held a 69th Anniversary Thanksgiving Worship Service on Sunday, December 7, at the main sanctuary of the Central Military Chapel, reaffirming its commitment to the mission of military evangelization.

The service was attended by members of the Ministry of National Defense, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, MCF members from the Seoul metropolitan area, as well as representatives from KVMCF, MSO, and congregants.

The sermon was delivered by Pastor Sang-In Kim of Moving Church, based on Psalm 23:1-6, under the title "Sufficient Grace." In his message, Pastor Kim encouraged the congregation to continue faithfully in the calling of military evangelization, grounded in the abundant grace of God.

Prayer Requests:

We cordially ask for your prayers:

- For the Association of Military Christian Fellowships (AMCF)
 - ① We pray for the establishment of MCFs in the 41 nations (out of 196 worldwide) where they are not yet present.
 - ② Through meetings and communication among the AMCF President and regional vice presidents, may the Gospel be proclaimed to soldiers in all nations.
 - ③ May the cooperative ministry of AMCF be strengthened through support from its Principal Supporting Organizations: ACCTS (USA), MMI (UK), and MSO (Korea).
 - ④ Through MCFs and their leaders worldwide, may Bible studies, prayer meetings, and fellowship gatherings for Christian soldiers be actively conducted.
 - ⑤ May political stability and peace prevail in conflict regions worldwide
- For the Mission Support Organization (MSO)
 - ① Through the New Year Retreat (Jan 24), may all MSO members participate in the global military mission under God's guidance and faithfully fulfill the mission of AMCF.
 - ② May the preparation and execution of MSO's major ministries—FMF-K Interaction (May 23~25), AMCF Leaders Interaction (June 15~22), Indochina Cornelius Discipleship Training (Vietnam MCF, Feb 23~27; Myanmar MCF, Mar 31~Apr 3), and CIS Discipleship Training—be thoroughly guided by God, so that every process proceeds smoothly and in grace.
 - ③ May the Central Asia Stan-Dart Competition (October, Uzbekistan MCF) and the East-Central Asia Regional Conference (Sep 16~19, Korea MCF) be carried out in close cooperation with the host MCFs, yielding abundant fruit in the training of AMCF leaders.
 - ④ May the financial needs for all ministries be fully met through the support of churches, related organizations, and members.
